

ADVERTISING OPPORTUNITIES

Perhaps the most targeted segment of our old-house audience, the Arts & Crafts Homes audience is a wonderfully unique group. Many are actively building or restoring their dream Arts and Crafts home (not just reading and collecting).

With heroes like William Morris, John Ruskin, and Frank Lloyd Wright, this affluent market segment is the perfect audience for high-end products, lifestyle goods, Arts-and-Crafts-inspired textiles, preservation/restoration/authentic products, and travel destinations as well as everyday goods and services.
