

Timber Home Nation

Social community where timber home enthusiasts gather.

This rapidly growing online community site is the gathering place for timber home enthusiasts, builders, editors and anyone with an interest in sharing information and stories about timber homes.

Our community members are serious about building the timber home of their dreams, and eager to share tips, photos, videos and connect with other people going through the same process.

Visitors can set up a profile, upload pictures and videos of their home and projects, write their own blog for the rest of the community to read and start discussions in the forums.

Become a sponsor:

Gain great exposure in front of a highly-targeted audience and drive traffic to your site by sponsoring Timber Home Nation.

Sponsorship includes:

1. Button with a Direct Link on EVERY PAGE

You get a 150x150 button that shows up on EVERY page of the community linking directly to your website.

2. Ability to Post Upcoming Events

Big event on the horizon? A sponsorship of TimberHomeNation.com allows you to post your company's events directly on to our site so our active readers can attend.

3. Interact with Our Readers

That's not all! You can also write and submit a blog once a month and have it featured on the home page (Pending editorial review). This is a tremendous opportunity to interact with our readers who will become YOUR customers.
