

Home Show Takeovers

Get in front of our audience first

Extend your reach. Augment your presence. Boost your success at the Log & Timber Home Show!

So you have a booth at the Log & Timber Home Show, but you really want to stand out to the ready-to-buy enthusiasts who are planning to attend. You want to introduce yourself before the show. You want to have a guaranteed spot on their "must-see" list. You want to be the first company they visit.

Sounds perfect. But is it possible? Take advantage of the Extreme Home Show Takeover, and the resounding answer is "Yes!"

What is the Extreme Home Show Takeover?

For each show this year, one company can become the Show's premier online sponsor. This is a limited opportunity first come, first served, so take advantage today!

What does it include?

For the week leading up to The Log & Timber Home Show, the sponsor is the PREMIER advertiser on The Log & Timber Home Show website (loghome.com/shows). Your banner ad (728x90) will greet every visitor to the site, as they pre-register, check for dates and times, get directions and plan what exhibitors they want to see. Your company will be the first one they see!

The premier sponsor is the exclusive banner advertiser on all Log & Timber Home Show promotions, announcements, reminders and invitation emails, sent to thousands of log home enthusiasts in the geographic area of the show. Your 728x90 ad will prominently appear promoting your product or services.
